Information Regarding the 2002 Primary Election Results

Recounts and Contests

There were no recounts or contests for a nomination to a federal, state, or state legislative office filed with the Indiana Election Division following the May 7, 2002 primary election.

The only recount or contest filed with any circuit court clerk for a nomination to a judicial office or the office of prosecuting attorney following the May 7, 2002 primary election was for the Democratic Party nomination for Prosecuting Attorney for the 52nd Circuit (Floyd County). The official vote totals for this nomination remained unchanged following the conclusion of the work of the Floyd County Recount Commission and the dismissal of the recount petition on June 21, 2002.

Candidate Vacancies Occurring After the Primary

Susan R. Crosby, the Democratic Party nominee for Indiana State Representative, District 44, withdrew as the nominee on May 8, 2002. Lana Schimpf was designated as the Democratic Party nominee for this office by the filing of a Certificate of Candidate Selection to Fill an Early Ballot Vacancy for a State Legislative Office with the Indiana Election Division on June 11, 2002.

John B. Buchanan, the Republican Party nominee for Prosecuting Attorney for the 20th Circuit (Boone County), died September 20, 2002. Todd J. Meyer was designated as the Republican Party nominee for this office by the filing of a Certificate of Candidate Selection to Fill an Early Ballot Vacancy for a Local Office with the Indiana Election Division on September 30, 2002.

Other candidate vacancies resulting from the failure of any individual to seek nomination to an office by filing as a candidate for nomination at the Democratic Party primary or Republican Party primary were filled by the appropriate political party following the May 7, 2002 primary in accordance with procedures outlined in Indiana Code 3-13-1.

Likewise, other candidate vacancies resulting from the failure of the state convention of the Libertarian Party to nominate a candidate for an office were filled by the Libertarian Party in accordance with the procedures in Indiana Code 3-13-1-20.

Information Regarding the 2002 General Election Results

Recounts, Contests, and Errata

Recount petitions concerning elections for the following federal offices and state legislative offices were filed with the Indiana Election Division following the November 5, 2002 general election:

Indiana State Representative, District 81
Indiana State Representative, District 86

The official vote totals for the candidates in House District 81 and House District 86 were revised following a recount conducted by the Indiana State Recount Commission. Indiana Code 3-12-11-19 provides in part that "a recount certificate... supersedes all previous returns made in any form of the recounted votes."

Contest petitions concerning elections for the following federal offices and state legislative offices were filed with the Indiana Election Division following the November 5, 2002 general election:

United States Representative, District 2
Indiana State Representative, District 15
Indiana State Representative, District 86

The Indiana State Recount Commission dismissed each of these contest petitions in December 2002. The official vote totals for the candidates in these districts remained unchanged as a result of the contest.

There were no recount or contest petitions filed with any circuit court clerk for a nomination to a judicial office or the office of prosecuting attorney following the November 5, 2002 general election.

Due to a ballot printing error, Harrison County placed the question of retaining Third District Court of Appeals Judge Mathias on its ballots, rather than First District Court of Appeals Judge Baker. This report assigns the yes and no votes on this question to Judge Baker.
